Presidents Report

Greetings Members,

As we move into Q4 of 2024 I hope that everyone has accomplished some goals that were set for yourselves at the beginning of the year, I have achieved a couple but did not hit them all.

Our September meeting was well attended at Famous Dave's BBQ in Doral, if you have not been attending the meeting lately, I would suggest coming out and join us as we awarded 1 engineer a trip to the ASPE National Convention in Columbus, OH October 18-23. I will bring up the subject of awarding an engineer a trip to the Tech Symposium in Orlando, FL in 2025.

Humberto Farina attended 7 out of the 9 meetings we had last year and will be looking forward to the National Convention, attend Sunday Night Party, walk the expo, and speak with leading industry experts from multiple manufactures, gain professional insight by networking with engineers at every event.

We will be heading back to Maggiano's Little Italy 21090 St. Andrews Blvd. Boca Raton, FL. 33433 on the second Thursday October 10th. Networking starts at 6, please come and show your support to the manufactures that support this chapter. If you haven't signed up yet, please do so: <https://aspemiami.com/meetinginfo.php>

VP-Legislative Report

Greetings Members,

I hope you all had a great weekend with friends and family. The holidays are upon us and will be here before you know it. Are you ready?

On October 10th, ASPE South Florida will be hosting our general and technical meeting at Maggiano's, Little Italy in Boca Raton, Florida 21090 St Andrews Blvd where Joel Taylor from Rehau will be presenting on Commercial Plumbing with PEX. The meeting will cover the advantages of PEX, fitting options, piping methods, design consideration and installation considerations. Your attendance will automatically enter you to win a trip to an ASPE event, so don't miss out! To register please click on link below:

<https://aspemiami.com/meetinginfo.php?id=68&ts=1727041241>

I want to acknowledge that Humberto Farina with In Prediais Engineers won a trip to the ASPE Convention and Expo 2024 in Columbus, Ohio, due to he had attended the most technical meeting 2023-2024. Congratulation Humberto and I will see you in Columbus!

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) finalized the first-ever national drinking water standards for several PFAS in drinking water. If you learn there are PFAS in your drinking water, then you may consider installing a home filter. A home filter could be an effective way to reduce PFAS levels, and there are a variety of types of filters available at many different price points.

Types of Filters

There are many water filters on the market, but not all filters address PFAS. If you choose to use a filter, be sure to get one that is certified to remove or reduce PFAS in drinking water. As of April 2024, filter certifications focus on removing the chemicals PFOA and PFOS, which are two specific types of PFAS. A filter can cost as little as $20 or more than $1,000 (not including maintenance costs), with variations between types, brands, and whether they are pitcher filters, installed on your faucet, or for your entire home. There may also be maintenance- and disposal-related costs that also vary between filters. Here are some of the types of filters that are currently available and can be effective at reducing PFAS:

- Charcoal (Granular Activated Carbon or GAC)
- Reverse Osmosis (RO) Systems
- Ion Exchange Resins

Thank you for reading and feel free to reach out to me or any of our BOD if you have any questions or know of someone who is interested in joining the chapter and may need help to navigate through the process.
